

Standards and Communications in Teaching

Standards:

This course aligns to all of the INTASC Standards including Learner Development, Learning Differences, Learning Environments, Content Knowledge, Application of Content, Assessment, Planning for Instruction and Instructional Strategies.

It also aligns to all of the McRel Teacher Evaluation Standards including Teacher Leadership, Diverse Learners, Teachers Know Content, Teachers Facilitate Learning and Teachers Analyze and Reflect.

In an age where there are multiple approaches to teaching and educating students, it becomes important to ensure that a particular standard is maintained. This course highlights various strategies for facilitating student learning and improving academic achievement.

The first section helps teachers understand more about standards-based education, while the second section equips teachers with assessment tools that help maintain these standards. Together, they will help you explore challenges in incorporating standards; as well as provide strategies to help you overcome any obstacles.

The third section helps you enhance your professional interaction and communication skills with parents.
