

Jack Reid Law for NY Private Schools

Standards:

This course aligns to the INTASC Standards including Learning Environments, Professional Learning and Ethical Practice, and Leadership and Collaboration.

It also aligns to the McRel Teacher Evaluation Standards including Teachers establish a respectful environment for a diverse population of students and Teachers demonstrate leadership.

The course aligns to the Learning Forward Standards including equity practices, equity drivers, and equity foundations. This course is designed to meet the staff training requirements of the Jack Reid Law (Chapter 480 of 2025), which extends Dignity for All Students Act (DASA) protections to nonpublic schools across New York State.

Fulfills the mandatory training requirement under the Jack Reid Law (Chapter 480, 2025), New York's anti-bullying legislation for nonpublic schools and organizations. Teachers and staff learn exactly what they are legally required to know. Topics cover recognizing bullying, when and how to report it, and what happens after a report is made. Includes real-world scenarios, clear reporting timelines, and step-by-step procedures schools must follow to stay compliant.
